Build Your Own Motorcaravan

By: John Wickersham

One way to become the proud owner of a motorcaravan or camper van is to design and build it yourself. Not only can you create a distinctive holiday home, but you can also control the cost. Whether you want to fit out a van, renovate a camper; revive an old model or build one from scratch, this manual will show you how. It gives hands-on explanations about electrical systems, water supplies, storage ideas and saving weight when working with wood. All is revealed in this practical book.

Motorcaravanning Handbook Buying, owning, enjoying (2nd)

By: John Wickersham

A motorcaravan gives you the freedom to take your home comforts with you in one self-contained unit wherever you choose to travel. Presented in a colourful, easy-to-follow format and small enough to fit in the glovebox, the Motorcaravanning Handbook contains the answers to any questions you may have about motorcaravanning, and covers everything from buying your vehicle and understanding how it works, to choosing and using sites. The first edition came 'unreservedly recommended' by Motorcaravan Motorhome Monthly (MMM) magazine, and this fully updated second edition will be essential reading for both potential motorcaravan purchasers and existing owners looking to maximise their vehicle's capabilities.

Caravanning Handbook (2nd edition) Owning, Enjoying, Buying

By: John Wickersham

The new, fully updated second edition of the Caravanning Handbook contains a wealth of information to help in the choice, purchase and use of a caravan. It is also an invaluable sourcebook when journeys are being planned and is an essential glovebox companion for use en route and on site. Presented in a colourful, easy-to-follow format, it gives advice on buying, towing, accessories, legislation and site procedures. It will also answer questions raised when using and looking after a caravan and includes chapters on electricity, gas, sanitation, refrigeration and heating appliances.

The Motorcaravan Manual (3rd Edition) Choosing, using and maintaining your motorcaravan

By: John Wickersham

This radically updated third edition encompasses the very latest developments in motorcaravans. It is full of practical information for both new and experienced owners and includes an overview of models, maintenance and repairs on habitation elements, explanations of construction methods, practical advice concerning appliances, and detailed descriptions of motorcaravan supply systems. The content is invaluable for owners of both leisure vehicles based on van conversions and coachbuilt models constructed on a separate chassis. Guidance is also given on accessories, weight restrictions, modifications, restoration work and self-build projects.

The Caravan Manual (4th Edition)

By: John Wickersham

Servicing, maintenance and improvements First published in 1993 and having sold over 75,000 copies, this fourth edition of the Caravan Manual contains completely revised text and many new illustrations. As well as guidance on maintaining older caravans, it includes details about the very latest models. There's new information on caravan weights, the use of public weighbridges, and related legal issues, along with electronic and computerised wiring systems in cars. There are major updates to the chapters on chassis, running gear, body construction, gas and all electrical details. This essential manual describes all the vital maintenance tasks and repair work that keeps a caravan in tip-top condition.
